

The Frankfort Roundabout.

GEORGE A. LEWIS, Publisher.

DEVOTED TO LOCAL AND SOCIETY NEWS.

TERMS, ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR

Volume X.

FRANKFORT, KY., OCTOBER 23, 1886.

Number 6.

BRIMFULL OF BUSINESS!

NEVER BEFORE HAS BUSINESS OPENED UP SO GLORIOUSLY, AND NEVER BEFORE DID WE HAVE SUCH A LARGE ^{AND} WELL SELECTED STOCK TO SHOW OUR CUSTOMERS.

In selecting our stock of HATS, we have endeavored to get all the Leading Styles, and think we can safely announce that nowhere in the State can be found a stock superior to ours.

OUR FURNISHING GOODS DEPARTMENT

IS COMPLETE WITH STAPLES AND NOVELTIES.

OUR TAILORING DEPARTMENT IS OUR PRIDE!

In it you can find any kind of goods you may want. Our Cutter and Workmen rank among the best in the land, and any order intrusted to them you can rest assured will be as well attended to as it is possible to do. COME TO SEE US. We will do all in our power to make our business relations with you pleasant.

HUDSON, HUMPHRIES & CASSELL.

Fredrick Ward at the Opera House.

What promises to prove the most notable event of the dramatic season is announced for the first three nights of next week in the engagement of the distinguished tragedian Fredrick Ward and his celebrated company.

Mr. Ward has by former engagements in this city established himself as a favorite here. It is four years since he was last seen here, and during the intervening time he has steadily advanced in his profession and in popular favor, until now he is recognized as the foremost tragedian of the American stage. His recent engagements in New York were perfect ovations to his brilliancy and genius, and he returns to that city in November for an extended re-engagement of six weeks. In Washington, Baltimore and Pittsburg the theaters have been too limited in capacity to seat the multitudes who have desired to witness his performances, and standing room was at a premium during his visits there.

The company supporting Mr. Ward has been shared largely in the houses on this season. Each individual member having been specially selected for his or her peculiar fitness for the various roles assumed.

The Ward management carries historically correct scenery for the different plays in the repertoire, and costumes designed from the original plates representing the historic characters portrayed in the tragedies performed.

The plays selected for production here are as follows: Monday night, Oct. 25th, Sheridan Knowles' grand tragedy "Vivian." Tuesday night Shakspeare's most popular play "Richard III" or the Battle of Bosworth Field. Wednesday night the new play recently added to Mr. Ward's list, an adaption from the French of Saumet, entitled "Galba the Gladiator," which is decided by the press of the cities, in which it has been represented, to be one of the strongest tragedies ever brought out.

Reserved seats for the matinees at Barrett's. The prices are one dollar in the Parquette, 75 cents in the Circle, 50 cents in the Balcony and 25 in the Gallery.

The following infamous slander upon ladies who attended the Centennial Hop in this city, appeared in the Louisville Truth of October 10th. If the author of the same would only show up in this city we think we can safely promise him a first-class coat of tar and feathers or a sound thrashing:

Ladies in search of startling novelties in dresses for evening wear would have profited by a visit to the Centennial hop given at the Capitol Hotel, Frankfort, on the evening of the 6th. One of the most noticeable costumes was made of a thin, loosely-woven material, which showed up a figure divine every time the fair wearer would get between you and the light. It was a "Mother Hubbard" of the purest stripe, without the faintest suggestion of a belt, and was suspended by small strings over the shoulders. Had it been worn so as to cover the upper portion of the body the lower limbs would have been exposed to the cold gaze of a critical public; and had it on the other hand reached to the shoe-tops the wearer would have been minus any covering above her waist. It looked more like a satin coffee-sack with arm-holes cut through it than a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Another much-noticed imitation of a dress was worn by a visitor, and the best description I can make of it is the one given by a lady, who said: "Miss _____ did have on a piece of a dress when she came in, but I do believe she has danced it all off!"

Proceedings of the Franklin County Teachers' Institute.

FRIDAY 14th, 1886,
Institute called to order. Prayer by Prof. R. H. Carothers.

The subject of grammar was then discussed. Prof. Carters opening the discussion and was followed by Prof. Brower, T. B. Ford and others. The discussion lasted until after 12 m., and all present seemed to be deeply interested.

Committee on resolutions reported. (Prof. W. B. Davis.) The name of J. W. Forbes was ordered to be placed on the resolutions with Mr. Davis but was overlooked in some way.

Query box opened and questions assigned.

AFTERNOON.

Queries answered.

The subject of fractions was introduced by Thos. B. Ford.

Theory and practice of teaching arithmetic was demonstrated by Prof. Carters to the benefit of all present.

The non-payment of the teachers by the month was explained by the Superintendent.

The duties of teachers came next. Discussion opened by J. W. Douglass.

The President notified the teachers that the County Association would meet at Col. T. B. Ford's office the 2nd Saturday in November.

NIGHT SESSION.

A lecture on Physiology was delivered by T. E. Utterback. We regret that there were not more teachers present to hear Mr. Utterback on this subject.

An educational address by Col. T. B. Ford was next in order. The Col. fully sustained the reputation he has heretofore earned as an educational speaker.

Miss Katie Shipp next read an essay entitled "Our Work," in which she showed the great merits of the day.

Col. W. M. Bassett then took the stand, and for three quarters of an hour held the audience intensely interested while he spoke on "Popular Education."

This speech was said to be the best of all that has made upon this subject.

A negro male child about twelve hours old was left in the yard of Mr. Chas. S. Green, on Conway street, Friday night. When it was discovered the police were promptly sent for and the little waf turned over to the city authorities.

Some fifty to seventy-five persons went down to Louisville to see the Fire-works and Exposition on Thursday morning.

Letter from Zeke Yocom.

STRING TOWN, KY., 1886.

DEAR NEPHEW: This leaves me and your aunt well. Suppose your aunt was a mother. The birth was not as previous as your uncle would have liked, but so it is, it was a rare ripe case. It gives me some comfort to know that I am the man that has now a baby. His name is Civil Service. You know we Democrats have laid down on Grover and James Beck, in the Louisville district. Pardon me for referring to political matters, knowing your valuable paper is neutral in politics.

We must make an apology for me, through the columns of your paper, for not making the speech promised at the Centennial. My excuse is that on my road from Sandridge at night I came in contact with the blossom end of a pole cat, and soiled my clothes so that I could not come. My heart was with you in the Centennial.

I will leave Hatton soon, my next letter will be from Sandridge.

Other news.—Mrs. John Sargent united with the Christian Church at this place last Lord's day. I predict that she will be a shining ornament to the church.

Yours truly,

ZEKE YOCUM.

to Harper's that they had gone to Rowan county, and had taken command of a company of regulators.

I will leave Hatton soon, my next letter will be from Sandridge.

Other news.—Mrs. John Sargent united with the Christian Church at this place last Lord's day. I predict that she will be a shining ornament to the church.

Yours truly,

ZEKE YOCUM.

An elastic step, buoyant spirits, and clear complexion, are the results of pure blood. The possessor of healthy blood enjoys a clearness of perception, impossible when the blood is heavy with impurities. Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier and vivifier.

The Leestown Stars went to Tiger to shoot the Tiger Club Saturday, but were most woefully disappointed, as the Tigers gobbled them up to the tune of 6 to 4.

Though numerous causes may operate to turn the hair gray, all that is needed to restore the natural color is Hall's Vegetable Stilian Hair Renewer. For more than twenty years its sales have been enormous, but we have yet to learn of its first failure.

The third trial of James Jenkins for the murder of Jno. Lewis Daily has been going on this week.

Mr. Charlie Jenkins, of Bridgeport, seeing our announcement of a big sweet potato, in our last, has brought us one that goes a half pound better, weighing 54 pounds. It is a yellow Bermuda.

A young man named Vardeman, from Bagdad, was tried, on Saturday, before Esq. McDonald, for striking Mr. Sam Luscher, Centennial Day, and fined $25.

Mrs. Bartlett Crutcher has placed on our table a sweet potato of the Red Bermuda variety which weighs four pounds. It is a splendid one, and we return our thanks.

FOR SALE! BARGAINS!

We desire to call the attention of the people of the city and county to our stock of

Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, Books and Stationery

For the coming season. We would call especial attention to our line of Gents' $2.00, $2.50, and $3.00 Shoes, in Button, Bals and Congress; also our Ladies' Kid and Pebble Goat lines at $1.50, $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00. These goods for style and durability cannot be surpassed, and you will save time and money by examining the stock before making your purchases. Our line of Hats and Caps in all the latest styles and shapes is full and complete, and we invite you to call and examine them. These goods will be sold at prices to suit the times, and we solicit a fair share of your patronage.

Respectfully,

MEAGHER BROTHERS.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

FRANKFORT, OCTOBER 23, 1886.

Mr. Darsie occupies his pulpit tomorrow morning and night as usual.

On Heating Stoves you can save money by buying at Gray & Church.

Mr. Darsie's meeting at Shelbyville closed last Tuesday night with 34 accession to the church.

We regret to know that Miss Anna Sullivan, one of the teachers in the City School, is quite sick.

The ROUNDABOUT man was appointed a member of the committee on Lodges Under Dispensation in the Grand Lodge of Masons, in Louisville, on Tuesday.

A young minister residing in an Eastern city will return to his old Frankfort home next month and carry away with him one of Frankfort's fairest daughters as his bride.

The Tobacco Growers of Franklin county are requested to meet at the Court House, in this city, on Monday, Nov. 1st. (County Court day), to take action looking to the righting of their grievances, as set forth in the resolutions adopted by the Tobacco Growers of Owen county.

LOST.—Between the water works reservoir and Wakefield's mill, on Monday last, the plans and specifications for a family residence. The finder will be rewarded by leaving same at the mill of J. M. Wakefield with M. R. Wayts.

The L & N. R. R. will sell round trip tickets to Louisville to-day for the small sum of $1. These tickets will be good on any train returning, including a special, which leaves Louisville at 10:30 o'clock, p. m.

Those who were once pupils of the late B. R. Sayre, will be interested in the proceedings of a meeting reported in another column. The object of the meeting was to form a permanent organization to keep alive the memory of former school days, and to bring annually together, in delightful reunions, all who enjoyed the privilege of the ripe and splendid scholarly of the famous teacher. We have no doubt that every pupil of Mr. Sayre will enroll himself a member of the organization, and that the latter will form one of the valued features of Frankfort's history.

A white convict by the name of Thornton Berry made his escape yesterday morning. He was sent with a negro trusty to deliver some shelves in South Frankfort, and when at the corner of Bridge and Second streets he made an excuse to go down into the hollow in the rear of the new Finch block, telling the negro to wait for him. As he failed to return, the negro inquired of several persons he saw coming in from the country if they had seen him, and on being told that they met him some distance from town, he returned to the prison and reported the facts when mounted guards were started in pursuit. Berry was sent for eight years from Anderson county, for manslaughter and had been a trusty for some time.

Dr. W. I. Kelley will be at the Capital Hotel, in this city, this morning, and will be pleased to see any persons who may need his professional services.

The ladies of the Methodist Church will re-open their exchange to-day in the counting-room of the Yeoman building from 11 a. m. to 5 p. m. They bespeak the favorable consideration of the housekeepers of the city.

Gray & Church are selling stoves at hard pan prices.

FOR RENT.—FURNISHED ROOM, suitable for two gentlemen.

Apply at the corner of Clinton and St. Clair streets.

If you want a bargain go to Gray & Church.

Some rough evidently wants the scalp of Policeman Larkin. As evidence on Sunday night last, at he was on his beat in "Craw," a couple of boulders were thrown uncomfortably near his head.

Being compelled to remove from my present stand shortly, I now offer immense bargains in my stock, call and get prices.

To J. HEENEY, South Side.

The highest market price given for fresh potatoes by Martin Bros.

ROOMS FOR RENT.—Apply to Mrs. Willis Green, 217 Washington Street, 2t.

Don't talk of hard times and high prices until you see J. HEENEY, South Side.

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., has "Healing remedies" to benefit from Electric Bitters. I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well."

Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25c per box by Jos. LeCompte.

Extra select oysters, the best in the city, 10 cents per can at J. HEENEY'S.

To the Voters of the First Ward, (Comprising South Frankfort.)

An election for Councilmen is to be held on the 4th day of December next.

The undersigned, your present representatives in the Council, have rendered you faithful, and, as they believe, valuable service.

They are candidates before you for re-election, and ask, and would be gratified, to have your support.

CHARLES L. COOPER,

WILLIAM J. HUGHES,

EDMUND H. TAYLOR, JR.

Frankfort, Oct. 16, 1886.

To the Voters of the Second Ward.

The undersigned respectfully announces himself as a candidate for re-election as Councilman in the Second Ward, at the election December 4th, 1886.

R. C. CHURCH.

The undersigned respectfully announces himself as a candidate for re-election as Councilman in the Second Ward, at the election December 4th, 1886.

LEWIS MANGAN.

WANTED.—5,000 bushels of Irish Potatoes.

COUNTRY hams and shoulders at J. HEENEY'S.

Now is the time to prepare for the crisp and nipping weather. Go to Gray & Church and get a handsome Orient Heater.

For cheap crockery of all kinds call at Day & Haff's.

Bennetts New York buckwheat flour 6 cents.

New York Cheddar cheese 16 cents.

Michigan hand picked Navy beans 4 cents.

Italian Macaroni 15 cents per pound at J. HEENEY'S, South Side.

Farmers having real good butcher stuff on hand, which they wish to sell, will receive the highest market prices by calling on Mack Salyers, 223 Main Street.

To put out const'nt pain, lameness, stomach disorder, torpid liver, pain in back or side, constipation, etc., try Dr. Bosco's Sanative Piles will give relief. Ask for the Fish Brand® Salve.

Don't waste your money on a poor or inferior salve. The FISH BRAND SLICKER is the best waterproof salve ever made.

Some gentle salves are good and may keep you comfortable, but keep a box of the above TRADE MARK.

Ask for the FISH BRAND® salve and take notice. If your doctor prescribes a salve, ask for the FISH BRAND®.

Don't have the fish brand salve.

It is the best salve in the world for cuts, blisters, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Joe LeCompte.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve

THE BEST SALVE in the world for cuts, blisters, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required.

It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box.

For sale by Joe LeCompte.

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

ROUNDABOUT - Supplement

FRANKFORT, KY., OCTOBER 28, 1886.

The news from Gen. John Rodman yesterday afternoon was to the effect that he was lying very ill, and his death momentarily expected.

Mr. Richard Jenkins has left at this office some of the nicest apples we have seen this year. They were of the Roman Beauty variety, and are splendid for either cooking or eating.

Messrs. S. & J. H. Told purchased, on Monday the coal business of Mr. W. T. Gaines. They take his stock of coal on hand together with all his carts, wagons and horses, and will remove their office to his old stand. Mr. Gaines will give his entire attention to his tow boat, the Houston Combs.

Mr. John Frazer, of Woodlake, has laid upon our table a curiosity in the shape of a large Shaker Russet Potato from which are growing in all directions, other potatoes to the number of ten. One or two of the smaller ones closely resemble the profile of a human face. Mr. Frazer raised a large crop of these potatoes, which are very fine, but he wished it understood that he has none for sale. We return thanks for a nice mess for our table.

Mr. John T. Parker, of the Farmdale neighborhood, has left on our table the finest pear we have ever seen raised in this section, which was grown on his farm. It is of the Duchesse de Angouleme variety, weighs one pound four ounces and a half, measured 18 inches in circumference. The tree upon which it grew is a small one, being only nine feet in height and seven and a half inches at the base which has been bearing for three years, and bore but 39 this year, which averaged one pound in weight. And it was perfectly delicious to the taste.

Personal.

Mr. C. E. Collins left, on Thursday evening, for a trip to Arkansas.

Miss Sue Gelslin was in Louisville on Tuesday.

Dr. J. Q. A. Stewart attended the Grand Lodge of Masons this week.

Judge W. P. D. Bush and wife went to Louisville on Tuesday.

Mr. J. E. Darnell went down to Louisville on Thursday evening.

Misses Sue G., Lillie and Carrie Bush went to Louisville this week.

Mr. J. Clifford Page, of Memphis, Tenn., has been on a visit to this city this week.

Mr. J. E. Kane went down to Louisville to spend a few days on Thursday.

Mr. M. D. Averill attended the Grand Lodge of Masons at Louisville.

Miss Josie Mahoney is visiting her cousins, Maggie and Mamie Downey, near this city.

Miss Lucy Bush, who has been visiting the eastern cities, returned on Sunday.

Miss Cora Blakemore, of this country, went to Louisville, on Tuesday, to visit friends.

Col. John Shelby, a prominent young lawyer of Lexington, was in the city on Tuesday.

Mr. Chas. Saffell went down to Louisville, on Tuesday, to consult Dr. Cheatham about his injured eye.

Hon. W. C. Breckinridge, of Lexington, was in the city on Tuesday in attendance upon the courts.

Misses Emma Kavanaugh and Matie Jones have been visiting friends in Frankfort county.

Hon. W. C. Owens, of Scott, was shaking hands with his many friends here this week.

Miss Mary Todd Saffell, who has been travelling in the east for a month or so, returned home on Sunday.

Miss M. T. Stowell, who has been visiting Miss Helen Williams, South Side, returned to her home in Campbellburg Monday.

Capt. Sam. M. Swigert, U. S. A., with his wife and daughter, are on a visit to Capt. Swigert's brothers—J. and J. Swigert, near Spring Station.

Mr. Sam Thomasson, of Salem, Virginia, who has been visiting his brother, Mr. D. A. Thomasson, in this county, left Monday night for home.

The New Sensation.

FRANKFORT, KY., Oct. 23, 1886.

The undersigned would wish to state to the citizens of Frankfort and vicinity that they are preparing for publication, and will issue in a short time, a Centennial Souvenir, history of Frankfort and Franklin county from 1786 to 1886, together with a complete review of the business interests of Frankfort and vicinity. This will contain John Mason Brown's Centennial Oration in full, together with an account of the proceedings of the Frankfort Centennial Celebration. It will also contain interesting papers from the pens of Frankfort's best literary people. We would call the attention of the business men to the advantages which would accrue to them by placing an advertisement therein, as the history will be gotten up in a neat book form, and will be read by every one in the city and county.

The publishers will call on the business men of the city during the week and would be glad to make arrangements with them for space, etc. Mr. Goodwin will call on the citizens shortly for their patronage in the way of subscription. Price, 50 cents; no money collected for these books until they are placed in your hands. Subscriptions received at C. L. Kendall's binder.

KENDALL & O'CONNOR.

BORN.

Saturday, Oct. 9, to the wife of Jas. N. Miles, a son, ROBERT SAMUEL.

DIED.

At the residence of his father, in this county, of congestion of the brain, LAWRENCE HAMILTON, infant son of P. H. and Mary T. Ferguson.

Near this city, on Monday, October 18th, 1886, JAMES M. DOWNEY, aged 14 years. Jimmie was an only child, the only son of a poor, old man, and was devoted to his parents. An invalid all of his life, he was particularly endeared to his mother, brothers and sisters on account of his infirmities. He died in spring, leaving nothing of his family and friends. He has gone to a more beautiful home to await their coming. His mother, brothers and sisters and friends mourn his untimely loss.

Card of Thanks.
To the Officers and Members of the Franklin County Teachers' Institute:

I desire to take this opportunity of expressing my sincere and heartfelt thanks to the Institute for the interest they have taken in me, as expressed by the resolution passed during your recent session.

I am pleased to say that I am now improving very much in health, and if I continue so to do, will be ready for the duties of my school room in a few days.

I was pleased to hear that the Institute was a perfect success, and regret very much that circumstances prevented me from participating in the exercises.

Yours fraternally,

F. W. DAVIS,
Oct. 18, 1886.

Forks of Elkhorn.

Mr. Jno. Bowen went to the great Glenview sale last week.

Miss Mattie Robb spent several days with Miss Josie Murphy last week.

Miss Annie South, of Frankfort, is out visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. Alf Stedman, who has been sick, has about recovered.

Whooping cough prevails as an epidemic in this city.

Mr. Cass South and two children have the whooping cough.

Miss Helen Long, of Georgetown, was the guest of the Misses Wilson this week.

Mr. Howard Black has been in Lexington this week exhibiting his fine horses.

Mr. James Gallihue and wife and daughter went to the Exposition last week.

Mr. Lute Thompson, of Stedmanville, who has been quite sick, is improving.

Born, to Mrs. Minnie Dejoner, of North Fork neighborhood, a son, L. E. Burdin.

Mr. Saffell left here last Thursday for Eddyville, where he will in the future reside.

Miss Annie Wood and her guest, Miss Lulu Lee, visited Louisville last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. South Trimble have recovered from their recent illness, both had fever.

Mr. Oscar Dejoner, from Council Bluff, Iowa, is visiting his father-in-law, Mr. L. E. Burdin, at Switzer.

Mr. William Suduth and family left here last Friday for a short stay with relatives near Hatton.

Mr. Steve Black bought a very fine colt at the Glenview sale last week, price $1,725.00.

Mr. Louis Todd, from Bellepoint, has been the guest of Mr. Griff Stedman, at Stedmanville.

Miss Addie Cason, having spent two weeks with Miss Lulu and Susie Jones, returned home last week.

Miss Bettie Macklin, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Blackburn, returned to Georgetown Tuesday.

Miss Annie Marquess, a charming young lady of Madison, Ind., is visiting friends in this community.

We are glad to see that our paper has doubled itself since the Centennial, let us keep it up. It is the leading county paper.

The colored brethren of the Baptist persuasion had a baptizing at this place last Sunday. Eight candidates were immersed.

The protracted meeting at the Mt. Pleasant Church closed last Saturday with 14 additions, 10 by experience, 3 by letter and one restored.

The sale of stock and produce on the farm recently owned by Mr. Adam Harper, took place on the 25th inst. A fare price was obtained for every thing offered.

The Fork's nine were defeated by a score of 8 to 4 at Stamping Ground last Saturday. Only five of their nine were present, and the game was played with 8, three others having been selected from the bystanders.

The young ladies and gentlemen contented themselves opening a skating rink at Woodlark very soon. The rink last winter afforded a large amount of fun, and much enjoyment is anticipated from it this coming season.

Mr. William Bedford bought a mare in Frankfort, Centennial week, which has proved to be a very fast animal. He says she can trot in 2:40 and was offered $600 for her a few days ago.

Wilson West and Manlius Ward, two colored men, died last week near Woodlark of dysentery or flux. This disease has existed as an epidemic in this neighborhood for the last three or four months. In all several hundred cases have occurred and many deaths have resulted. No new cases are reported at present.

The colored people have been holding a protracted meeting in their new chapel for the last three weeks; services are protracted to a late hour each night. The deep tones of the preacher and the shrill voices of the sisters floating on the night air down the waters of North Fork, are not at all unusual, and mellowed by distance produce an agreeable weird sensation upon the listener.

Some of the citizens of North Fork neighborhood requested me, through the columns of the ROUNDABOUT, to ask the County Attorney, or some one who knows, something about the bird law. If it is now in existence when does it expire? Please answer in next week's paper. They expect to test this in the next grand jury, as some hunters have failed to observe the law.

The following piece was written by a young man who recently fell in love and is describing the scenery to his fair one: "The scenery around the Forks at this season of the year is very beautiful. The lofty cliffs, undulating meadows and meandering streams, softened by the mellow tints of the Autumnal foliage, produce a picture unequalled in loveliness. In fact it might be said of this section of the country, if not of all the earth, it is at least the most smiling corner of the country." (We agree with him all along, and those who do not, let them come and see for themselves.)

Miss Josie Mahoney is visiting her cousins, Maggie and Mamie Downey, near this city.

Miss Lucy Bush, who has been visiting the eastern cities, returned on Sunday.

Miss Cora Blakemore, of this country, went to Louisville, on Tuesday, to visit friends.

Col. John Shelby, a prominent young lawyer of Lexington, was in the city on Tuesday.

Mr. Chas. Saffell went down to Louisville, on Tuesday, to consult Dr. Cheatham about his injured eye.

Hon. W. C. P. Breckinridge, of Lexington, was in the city on Tuesday in attendance upon the courts.

Misses Emma Kavanaugh and Matie Jones have been visiting friends in Frankfort county.

Hon. W. C. Owens, of Scott, was shaking hands with his many friends here this week.

Evergreen Sunday school picnic to-day. Very warm and dry for the season.

Royal Wade has been considerably indisposed this week.

The whooping cough is still progressing.

Two sales last Saturday, Mrs. Freeman and R. B. Jenkins.

The emigration fever prevails to an alarming extent.

Born.—October 12, 1886, to Mr. Sam Collins and wife, a son—Clarence.

Miss Mattle Jenkins and Miss Alma Schofield are on a visit to friends in Louisville.

Mr. John Angrave was in Louisville several days last week.

The accommodation business seems to be about played out.

Miss Maggie Sargent entertained quite a company of the beau and belles of Bridgeport last Sunday.

Miss Mary Lynn Robb has returned to her home in Mercer county from a visit to relatives in this section.

Mr. Oscar Wade and wife visited his mother, Mrs. James Harrod, the first of the week.

Mrs. Sallie Turfer and two children, of Louisville, have returned home from a visit to relatives in this section.

If trustees and parents would visit the school often and see the workings there-of, perhaps less fault would be found. A trial will do no harm.

Prof. Hugh Tracy's method of penmanship, as demonstrated by him during the session of the Franklin County Teachers' Institute last week, proves him to be a workman that needeth not be ashamed.

Bloomington.

Born.—October 13th, to Mr. Thomas Wilson and wife, a son—Harry Innes.

Miss Josie McDaniel, of Long Branch is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Mal. Triplett.

Miss Julia Wallace returned Monday from a visit to friends in Frankfort.

Little Misses Alice and Sue Scantland are on the sick list this week.

Rev. Wm. F. Smith, of Owenton, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Job Smith, this week.

Mrs. Katie Luckett and children, of Frankfort, are visiting friends in this neighborhood.

Rev. John H. Cannon is conducting a protracted meeting at Thorne Grove. Quite a number have been added to the church.

Mr. Harry Harrod, formerly of this place, but now of Woodford, was married, on the 13th inst., to Miss Sallie Bowler, of Versailles.

Mr. John Wallace is giving our turnpike some much needed repairing. He is having rock broken, and all of the washed places repaired.

The pretty weather affords the farmers an excellent opportunity to do their fall work. Wheat sowing, and apple gatherings are now in order.

Messrs. Thomas Hunter and T. E. Utterback, of Frankfort, came out Sunday to visit their fellow teacher, Mr. F. W. Davis, who is quite ill at Mr. Cal. Hayden's.

If Col. Thomas B. Ford will consent to become a candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction, he will receive the vote of the friends of education in this community.

Died.—At her residence, one mile from this place, Monday, the 17th, Miss Nancy Gravitt, aged thirty-nine. Funeral services took place Tuesday, Rev. John H. Cannon officiating, after which the remains were interred in the Jones burying ground. Miss Nancy was an excellent Christian lady, well prepared to follow her aged mother, who was laid at rest only a few short months ago.

HOUSE & LOT FOR SALE.

I OFFER AT PRIVATE SALE MY HOUSE and lot situated on Broadway street, between 1st and 2nd. The house is a fine, eight roomed, with kitchen and servants room. The lot is about fifty feet front and runs back about one hundred feet. Gas, water, &c., and is in good repair. Apply to JOHN GALT, Frankfort, Ky.

or JUDGE W. H. SNEED, Frankfort, Ky.

FOR SALE.

A ADMINISTRATOR OF W. H. JONES, deceased, I will sell at public outcry, at the Court-house door in the City of Frankfort, on Monday, November 1st, 1886, two shares of stock in the Frankfort and Owen Turnpike Company. Terms cash. B. S. SCANTLAND, Adm'r.

4. THE PROPERTY ON WHICH I RESIDE IN South Franklin, comprising four acres. As a whole or in lots to suit purchasers. W. STODDARD JOHNSTON, Frankfort, Ky.